AVONGARA KITOKO
Imported February 8, 2008

“Kitoko” means very nice in the Azande language. It certainly describes this little dog. He was the first puppy we purchased during the 2008 trip to the Democratic Republic of the Congo. We were traveling along the road from Dungu to Galima when I asked the driver to stop because we saw a beautifully moving dam trot in front of an abandoned building with a young puppy following her. While we were searching for the dam and puppy a group of people brought this red and white male for us to look at. Although his skin and coat were in terrible condition due to fleas and worms, he appeared to be very nice structurally. He has lived up to that as he grew. He is very nice in structure and temperament. He is my constant companion. His temperament is friendly and affectionate. He plays with puppies and children alike. Structurally he possesses a front assembly that any breeding program would welcome. He has very nice bone and pigment. His feet and gate would equip him to trot all day. He has sired one litter of puppies, bred to Ch Signet After Hours Party. They are very typey, quality puppies.
