DEADLINES FOR ALL COPY: THE 25TH (TWENTY-FIFTH)

Opinions expressed in the columns and letters are those of the individual writers. The Editor reserves the right to edit all copy, and will not knowingly print erroneous copy. Neither the Bulletin nor the BCOA will be responsible for false advertising.

NOV. 1985

EDITORS' NOTE: Our sincere apologies for the lateness of this and the previous "Bulletin Board", as well as the probable lateness of the Oct./Nov./Dec. BULLETIN. We can only plead illness - both the Bulletin Board Editor, and the BULLETIN Editor have had major asthma attacks this fall, and the Advertising Manager's mother has been seriously ill. Hopefully, good health is just around the corner, and 1986 can be a super year for all (with lots of deadlines met in a timely manner). HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL!

LETTERS

"Dear Sandy,

THREE CHEERS FOR JAN BRUNER!!! Her lengthy letter to the Bulletin says it all in a nutshell. She very effectively compares advertising in the BCOA Bulletin to the Basenji Magazine and the financial status of many small kennels/breeders.

Please consider finding an end to the continuous flow of letters on either side of the Bridges-Hardison problem. I think that both sides have been adequately covered in the several months these letters have been published. I'm sorry that each side was offended, but, I think that the Bulletin has shared the problems for long enough. (EDITOR'S NOTE: All correspondence received, unless otherwise noted, is published.)

I believe that you've done a wonderful job with this bulletin and hope that you will continue to do so! I promise to advertise as soon as I have a brag worthy of advertisement and will support your breeders' card directory in the next year.

I hope to meet you at the National!

Sincerely,
Connie Reid

MINUTES OF E.C.O.A. ANNUAL MEETING - October 5, 1985

Sigwick Inn, Leesburg, Virginia

The meeting was preceded by the banquet and auction, and a slide program promoting next year's BCOA National Specialty in Seattle. Attendance sheets were distributed during the banquet. Although some people left before the annual meeting was started, it was determined that there were ample members in attendance during the meeting to create a quorum. Following is a listing of those who signed the attendance sheets:

MEMBERS: Dorothy Ammons, Maurine Atkinson, Sandi Atkinson, Terry Atkinson, Charles Bagnell, Robert S. Barka, Barkan, Darlene Barrett, Karen Payne, Sandy Beaudoin, Coralie S. Betz, Jane Bingham, Demara Bolte, Laura Bosley, Judy Brader, Jacqui Bradshaw, Jon Bradshaw, Sandra L. Bridges, Linda Brown, Russell V. Brown, R.W. The meeting was called to order by President Barbara Camp at 11:00 pm. It was determined that we had a quorum. It was moved and seconded to dispense with the reading of the minutes of the 1984 annual meeting. The following people gave their annual reports: Peg Grundman, Treasurer; Melody Russell, Secretary; Bob House, AKC Delegate; Loretta Kelley, Membership Chairperson; Bob Mankey, Standard Chairperson; Sally Wuornos, Ways & Means Chairperson.

Barbara Camp announced the annual election results.

The following people were voted into membership by those present: Kay Eldred, Richard P. Harrington, Dennis & Gina Regnier, Betty J. Swadener, Carmella Troisi-Hoerr & Harry Hoerr, Jr., Bill & Mary Turner, Patrina & Robyn Black, Beverly Wozniak, Joe & Nancy Clay, Jane Hill.

Damara presented the Diane Coleman award to Ken & Marilyn Leighton for their dog, Ch. Rameses Golden Phoenix. Because they were not present, Damara will mail it to them.

Because of the fact that the Evergreen Basenji Club Futurity will be held in conjunction with the BCOA National Specialty in 1986, Bob House asked Melody Russell to explain how the Futurity is conducted.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Melody Russell, Secretary
