CHANCE OF A LIFETIME by Sandy Beaudoin

Have you ever dreamed of owning a Damara Bolte' bronze similar to the Karen Kluck Memorial Brace Trophy? Have you assumed that in order for this to be a reality, one of several things would have to happen: a.) A great aunt that you don't even know you have will leave you her fortune, b.) You will have to win the lottery, or c.) You will have to actually win the Karen Kluck Memorial Brace Trophy at the National enough times to retire it to your home. In all likelihood, if you are like most of us, your best odds are with the lottery!! All that would then remain would be to convince Damara to do another bronze, just for little ol' you.

Well Mr. or Ms. Dreamer, BCOA is offering you the chance of a lifetime. In an effort to rebuild the BCOA National Specialty fund for future specialties, the Basenji Club of America, Inc. is offering basenji owners everywhere the unique opportunity to win a bronze basenji figurine crafted by Damara Bolte'. This will be a single dog similar to the pair on the brace trophy.

In addition, A SECOND chance drawing will be held for a Peaches (CarolAnn) Worsham wall hanging, a one of a kind work of art in its own right. But wait, that's not all! A THIRD ticket will be drawn for a handmade leather slip lead, designed and crafted by Carmella Troisi-Hoerr. And if that isn't enough, how about A FOURTH chance at an Egyptian papyrus painting? Yes, that's right, on genuine papyrus donated by Linda Stilwell.

Don't miss out on the unique chance of a lifetime, not one chance, but four chances to win valuable items desired by Basenji enthusiasts worldwide. 1.) A bronze figurine of a basenji sculpted by the one and only Damara Bolte'; 2.) A beautiful wall hanging by the creative and talented Peaches Worsham; 3.) A leather slip lead of her own design crafted by the devilishly clever Carmella Troisi-Hoerr and 4.) An Egyptian work of art on genuine papyrus donated by the most generous Linda Stilwell.

Chances for these outstanding pieces of fine art are being offered at $5.00 each or three for $10.00. Be the first to get your tickets for the bronze basenji, the wall hanging, the leather slip lead and the genuine papyrus Egyptian artwork. Any one of these items is worth many times the price of a ticket. Buy early and buy often - remember, this is a once in a lifetime opportunity to acquire a piece of fine art at a fraction of its value.

Raffle tickets will be available from BCOA Board members, 2004 National Specialty Committee members, The Bulletin, and various other BCOA members at large including a representative from each of the affiliated clubs. In addition, work is in progress for a Pay Pal account to be made available for on-line purchases. Buy early; buy often, your National Specialty needs you! More information will be available in the April/May/June 2004 BCOA Bulletin.
